A NOTE FROM MR GRIEVES

We have reached the end of another school year. It has been a really good year. Walking around school every day I see rooms full of students working hard and enjoying school. Our year 11 students worked hard for their GCSE exams, and we wish them good luck as they move on to the next stage in their education. We have had some great trips this year, and we have had a lot of sporting success.

One of the things I am most proud of this year though is this brilliant new school newspaper. There's been a long gap since we last published Summ'it and I think this new version is better than ever. There's an awful lot of hard work goes into producing the paper, almost all of it from students, brilliantly led by Miss Hibbert. I'm amazed by how varied and creative every issue is.

I would like to wish everyone a relaxing and happy summer holiday. Have a good break, it is well deserved.

SPORT UPDATES

Written by Mr P Henshall and Mrs E Milne

We are always enormously proud of the achievements of our sporting students and this term is no different. We have had a range of success at local, county, and national level. For regular updates, follow us on Twitter (@ChapelHighPE). We are immensely proud of our young leaders in both year 8 and 9 who have supported many primary events; they have been excellent ambassadors for the school. Thank you!

OSCAR SHAW, CYCLING

Year 9 student Oscar Shaw took part in the British Schools Cycling Association Championships for Derbyshire representing Chapel-en-le-Frith High School. Oscar came 3rd in the 10-mile time trial. This was followed by the circuit race which saw Oscar break away with another rider and then outsprinting him for the win. An excellent achievement, Oscar!

CRICKET

Our u15 cricket team travelled to Trent College for the u15 T20 County Cup finals day where we played the hosts in the semi-final. Unfortunately, we lost the semi-final, but this meant a play off for third place. Captain Zak Kelly won the toss and elected to bowl first, Joe Cooper was pick of the bowlers with two wickets as Chapel reduced West Park to 163 in their twenty overs. Zak (69) and Joe (68) opened the batting for Chapel and put on a hundred run partnership to help the team defeat West Park in 17 overs and finish third in the County Cup.

The u14 cricket team, made up of students in year 7 and 8, unfortunately finished fourth in their County Cup finals day. After an excellent quarter final win away to Dronfield, the team came up short in both the semi-final and the play off. This team is growing and will hopefully have a good chance in next year's competition.

GOLF

Three of our year 11 students, Ollie W, Fraser H and Ollie S travelled to the home of England Golf, Woodhall Spa for the English Schools' Golf Team Championships. During the practise round, the boys made notes on the course, planning their approach for the competition the following day. Putting was the challenge on tricky, quick greens.

Competition day saw the boys in complete focus mode, as they arrived 2 hours before their tee time to warm up for the day. Putting, chipping, and driving was the order for warm up, with the boys making sure they were ready to take on the challenge.

The team played some excellent golf and managed to achieve a Stableford score of 71 points, putting them tied 6th place out of 632 schools nationwide. Ollie Wong finished an impressive 3rd in the individual standings.

NETBALL

The netball finals were all held in the summer following a successful season for all our teams. The future is bright as both our year 7 and 8 teams won the area finals backed up by excellent performances by our B and C teams too. It was lovely to see all our year 7 netball club playing in the tournament on one of the hottest days!

SPORT UPDATES!

Written by Mr P Henshall and Mrs E Milne

SPORTS HALL ATHLETICS

Just before the outdoor season started our sports hall teams took part in the county finals following their success in the High Peak competition. In some very tight competitions, the teams came away with 2nd, 3rd, and 4th places.....a great end to the term!

ATHLETICS

It has been a busy summer with most events enjoying the warmth and sunshine that June brought. The school teams all performed well at the county round of the ESAA cup, and all four teams progressed to the regional finals. The star performers were the year 8 boys who won the county round and finished runners up in the regional A final; a super achievement. Following this success over twenty students represented the High Peak at the county schools' individual athletics championships in Derby where we won 14 medals including golds for Quaid Sin, Theo Mills Kidals and Ollie Thornhill. Following this event, seven students were selected for the Derbyshire team for the intercounty event in Stoke.

The outstanding individual achievement was from Quaid who qualified to take part in the English Schools' finals in Birmingham in the triple jump. Here he competed against the top athletes in the country at this prestigious event, finishing an excellent 16th.

Several athletes also took part in the Derbyshire Combined events championships and Betty Braithwaite and Quaid both won their respective age groups. Onto Derby for the regional finals and Chapel were well represented with 7 athletes selected for the county team. Excellent performances were achieved by Quaid, Jack Chen, Campbell Johnson and Tessa Cooper. However, the stars of this event were our older students and Ollie won the Midlands title and along with Betty and Flossie Johnson now go onto the national schools' finals at Bedford in September.

Sports Day is fast approaching and hopefully we will see lots of students enjoying their athletics in our annual sporting finale!

GET INVOLVED NEXT YEAR!

Look out for the sports club timetables next year and get involved! If you need to ask a question about the sports teams or the sports clubs, speak to a member of the PE department. If you've been thinking about getting involved, the new school year is the time to do so!

THE

INTERNATIONAL VIEW

GERMANY

BEFORE THE TRIP

Q: Miss Hibbert, why did you choose to go to Germany?

A: I didn't actually choose to go, I was asked by Mrs Rongong and Miss White to help accompany the students on the trip!

Q: Where in Germany are you going to stay?

A: We are going to the Rhineland and Cologne. We are staying in a nice hotel near all of our fun activities.

Q: What are you planning to see there?

A: We are going on a river cruise, going to a museum, a chocolate factory and a chairlift.

Q: Are you going there with anyone?

A: We are going with 36 students, year 8-10, and Mrs Rongong, Miss White and Mr Latham.

Q: How long are you going to be there?

A: We are going for five days.

Q: What do you think the best thing in Germany is?

A: I'll be honest, I don't know a lot about Germany, I'm very excited to go for the first time. But I would love to go to Berlin and see all of its history and the holocaust memorial sights.

Q: What are you planning to eat there?

A: Well, we are going to a chocolate factory. So, I plan on overindulging on chocolate and any snacks for the very long coach journey.

Q: How will you travel there?

A: We are travelling by coach, it will take us 16 hours apparently. We're driving to Germany!

Q: When are you heading to Germany?

A: We leave at 11.30pm on Sunday (11th June) night and we arrive back on Friday at a similar time.

Q: Approximately how many souvenirs are you going to buy?

A: I think I may need to take a spare empty suitcase to fit the hundreds of souvenirs I wish to buy.

AFTER THE TRIP

Q: How many complained how hot it was?

A: To be honest, we all enjoyed how nice the weather was! It was so nice that it was so sunny and we could do everything we wanted to do outside. Don't get me wrong, it was a little blistering at times, but we managed to find shelter from the blazing sun and plenty of H2O and sunscreen!

Q: How much stuff did you bring back?

A: Do you know what, I was fairly reserved. I brought back some chocolate for my partner, my mum and my gran, some snacks for my friends – but that was about it. Compulsion control at its finest!

Q: Where were the students most excited?

A: I think the students were the most excited for the chocolate museum. You got free chocolate when you walked through the door, what more could you ask for!

Q: How busy was it?

A: Boppard, where our hotel was, was serene and quiet. It felt like a very lovely calm place. Cologne however, was chaos, incredibly busy. But Cologne is a city, and you would expect the same from any UK cities.

Q: Which staff were the most tired?

A: Oh gosh, we were all absolutely pooped. It took us 19 hours on the coach to get back to Chapel, so I think by the end of the journey we all could've slept for A WEEK.

Q: Did anyone get injured?

A: We were pretty hazard free, nobody got seriously injured and nobody was sick on the coach (yippee!).

Q: Who seemed the most "bored"?

A: Hmm... I think everyone was a bit bored on the coach journeys. Although, there was a couple of year 8 students that were particularly bored on the coach back and kept asking 'Are we nearly there yet?'. I got home and profusely apologized to my parents for the years of me saying the same to them on any long car journeys – I now understand how annoying it is.

Interview of Miss Hibbert
Written by Theo Frost

THE

GERMANY

Interviewed by Theo Frost

Q: What part of the trip was your favourite?

A: My favourite part was the chair lift over Boppard and the wineries. The activity was just so beautiful, the sun was shining, and you could see for miles around. I sat with Jacob, a lovely year 8, and we just chatted about everything – school, Germany, the trip – so yeah, it was lovely to be in the sky, getting to know one of our fab students.

Q: Who was the most silly?

A: Ooooh, the kids at the back of the bus with me. They cracked me up every day with their silly jokes and conversations. I thoroughly enjoyed their silliness.

Q: One to ten how good was it?

A: Oh gosh, I'd have to say an 8! I had such a lovely time, it was tiring and a little bit stressful at times but TOTALLY worth it. I would 100% go again and would recommend Germany to EVERYONE!

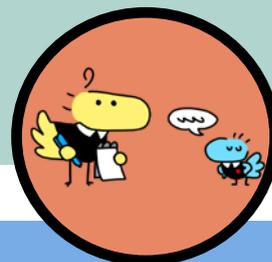

THE PERSON BEHIND THE TEACHER

THIS ISSUE'S SPOTLIGHT IS ON...

MRS METCALFE
ENGLISH TEACHER

Q: What did you want to be when you were younger?

A: When I was about 5, I loved a programme called The Sky at Night and wanted to be an astronomer.

Q: What is the best Christmas present someone could give you?

A: A lie in! My kids always wake me up far too early on Christmas Day.

Q: What is the strangest gift/card a pupil has ever given you?

A: I used to teach in South Korea and my pupils there used to bring me dried squid snacks... not great if you are a vegetarian!

Q: What are the best and worse parts of being a teacher?

A: I love the English language and hope that I can share my passion for crafting.

Q: Were you well behaved in school?

A: Mostly... I'm not sure all of my old teachers would agree with that answer though.

Q: What subjects did you take at GCSE?

A: All the obvious ones and then art, music, history and German.

Q: What are your hobbies?

A: I really love making things from macramé – my house is now full of wall hangings, plant hangers and macramé shelves. I've pretty much run out of space.

Q: If you support a football, what team do you support?

A: I'm really not a football fan – my mum is a passionate Sheffield Wednesday supporter though.

Q: What is a hairstyle choice you regret?

A: K-Pop is huge in Thailand. When I lived there, I got talked into a very ill-advised K-Pop inspired layered bob – looks great on Asian hair but just went very, very frizzy in the heat on me.

Q: Have you ever met anyone famous?

A: A few politicians but no-one terribly interesting.

Q: If you could pick a different subject to teach, what would it be?

A: Probably music – I can play piano and alto saxophone.

Q: If you could change your career, what would you change it to?

A: Probably a librarian.

Q: What is your favourite food?

A: I love Thai food so probably a spicy Thai salad.

Q: What is your favourite film/TV show?

At the moment, a comedy about football called Ted Lasso. Which is odd because I'm really not a football fan.

Q: What is your favourite book?

A: So many to choose from... but if pushed, Pride and Prejudice is one that I can read over and over and never get bored.

Q: If you have children do they like the subject you teach?

A: I've got two girls and yes, they are both book worms like me.

Q: If you were going to a desert island and could only take one thing what would it be?

A: Probably my anti-histamines. My hayfever is awful at the moment!

Q: Do other staff have a nickname for you?

A: If they do, I don't know about it!

Q: 3 words to describe yourself?

A: Committed, supportive and kind.

INTERVIEW OF ABI DAVIES

YEAR 11 LEAVER

Abi was a student at Chapel High School from 2018-2023. This year they completed their GCSE exams and they're on their way to college to further their education. I sat down with Abi to reflect on their experience at Chapel High School. Abi was born with Cerebral Palsy and navigated the school in their motorised wheelchair.

Q: What year did you start at Chapel High School?

A: 5 years ago, that would've been 2018.

Q: Can you remember how you felt when you were anticipating coming to high school?

A: I had mixed feelings about it because I was ready for change, but I knew I was the only student coming here from my primary, so I would have to make new friends, so mixed feelings.

Q: How have you found your experience here?

A – I have enjoyed my time here; I've found that people are really accommodating. Year 7, even though I couldn't get into the caves at Castleton, they took me on the trip and they were planning on taking me to Spain but covid-19 hit, sadly. They had everything in place.

Q: How have you found your lessons at Chapel High?

A: I've enjoyed my lessons and enjoyed working with TA's that I've had the privilege of working with. Also, if TA's aren't in, teachers have printed off resources or written for me so I don't have to worry about anything. It is a really accommodating school.

Q: What advice would you give to somebody coming to Chapel High who has had a similar life experience to you?

A: Be as outgoing and open minded as possible, because if you want to do something, they will find a way of getting you there and doing it. The support has been great, I've been given regular support so I've gotten quite close with the TA's that work with me, just embrace the support, they're there to support you and not be an inconvenience.

Q: One thing you're glad you did at school?

A: It's hard to pick one, because I've done so much, but I definitely say engaging in extra-curricular stuff opens up networks for friendships.

Q: What is one thing you would improve about CH school?

A: One thing I would improve is the speed of adaptations that have been made. Only recently, school have pinned the doors back in corridors but that has been going on since I was in year 6 (6 years ago). Pinning the door back has given me so much more independence and freedom to do what I want at lunch times, on my own. I hope that any accessibility adaptations can be done quicker in the future.

Q: Anything you'd like to add?

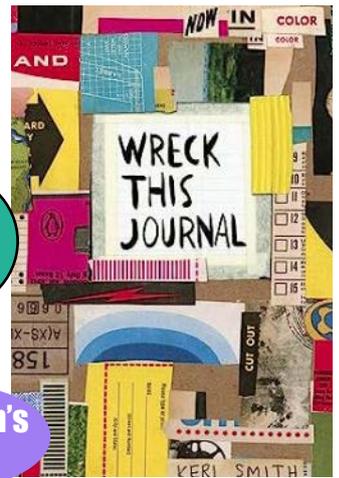

A: It's always best to be yourself and face any challenges head on. Don't let fear let you lose out in life.

PEANUT BUTTER COOKIE RECIPE

From BBC GoodFood,
written by Sophie Pomeroy

Ingredients:

- 200 grams of peanut butter (both crunchy and smooth work)
- 175 grams of caster sugar
- ¼ teaspoon of table salt (not needed if peanut butter is already salted)
- 1 large egg

Method:

Step 1: Heat your oven to 180C and line 2 large baking trays with parchment.

Step 2: Measure the peanut butter and sugar in bowl. Add ¼ tsp fine table salt and mix well with a wooden spoon. Add the egg and mix again until the mixture forms a dough consistency.

Step 3: Break off small walnut-sized chunks of dough and place, well-spaced apart (otherwise they WILL fuse), on the trays. Press the cookies down a bit to flatten. The cookies can now be frozen for 2 months, cook from frozen adding an extra minute or 2 to the cooking time.

Step 4: Bake for 12 minutes, until golden around the edges and paler in the centre. Cool on the trays for 10 minutes, then transfer to a wire rack to cool completely. Store in a cookie jar (or however you store your cookies) for up to 3 days.

THE BEST DRAWING EQUIPMENT AND TIPS

Written by Max Appleby

I really like drawing outside of school and these are some bits of drawing equipment that I recommend for starters:

THIN TIPPED POSCA PENS – they are great for doing the outlines of your drawings.

THICK TIPPED POSCA PENS – they are good for colouring the inside of your drawings.

The POSCA pen colours stand out because once they are dry, they go a very bold matt colour. You can get them in most colours.

Get yourself a NOTEBOOK, A3 or A4 notepad. It is good to have a notepad cause its stress relieving and you can put your mind in another dimension and forget about what is going on.

If you have no ideas of what to draw, go to the library and look at the comic section, because they have great ideas for what to draw next. Good inspiration. E.g., I used Marvel as my inspiration because I like Marvel and it is very multi-dimensional.

If you are struggling to find something in a comic book, ask Miss Hibbert for help and she will help you find some how to draw books. These art books teach you the steps of how to draw and then if you keep practicing you will achieve great things of the drawing world.

I draw my favourite things and it makes me look for more things to draw. When I practice, I feel like I improve more because of all the practicing. I find it very stress relieving and would recommend it to anyone that is stressed or just needs to zone out and just think of something you like and just draw it.

ANIMAL FACT FILE

DUGONG

Written by Matthew Webster

1. The scientific name for a Dugong is a Dugong Dugon, which I think is cool.

2. They are mostly found in the indo-pacific, which is the two regions of the Indian and Pacific oceans!

3. People mistake the Dugong for Manatees, but Manatees live in rivers and in North America whereas Dugongs live in the sea!

4. Dugongs like to eat seagrass and alga which makes them herbivores.

5. Dugongs can live up to approximately 50 years!

6. They can walk on the seabed, by using their fins.

7. Manatees are nicknamed sea cows, but they live in rivers! Maybe, the nickname sea cow should be for a Dugong!

8. People used to mistake dugongs for mermaids, they were the inspiration for the myth of the mermaid, I think it's because of their tails.

MANATEE

LION

1. A female lion's gestation period is around 110 days. Gestation means how long it takes for babies to grow inside mum's tummy.

2. Lions are mammals, and carnivores which means they only eat meat.

3. Lions are a type of big cat and there are around 9 different types of lions.

4. Lions can live up to 14 years.

5. Lions grow manes between their second and fifth year of life

6. Lions are large cats that grow to lengths of 9 to 10 feet. They typically weigh between 330 to 550 pounds (150 to 250 kilograms), with males reaching the higher end of that range.

The Glossop Intermediate Wind Band

Written by Nellie Jacobs

WHAT'S HAPPENING LOCALLY?

Glossop Intermediate Wind Band is a fun, friendly and safe space for developing musical skills, teamwork and playing in a band. It is a great opportunity to learn new music and perform in some amazing spaces! Intermediate band has an entry level Grade 3 and is run by Sarah Hind, who always listens to what you have to say. We have broken up for the summer now and our last performance was at Old Glossop Parish Church for the Summer Concert, playing in a programme including the Dark Peak Concert Band, Dark Peak Youth Orchestra and multiple junior bands (the strings were in Part 1 and the wind bands in Part 2).

We played music from the musical 'Chicago', a medley of pieces from the film 'Pirates of the Caribbean', and 'Bohemian Rhapsody' by Queen. We meet for rehearsals every Monday 5–6pm at Victoria Hall, Glossop. I really enjoy coming to rehearsals and playing in this supportive group of musicians.

Dark Peak Band

Written by Lizzie Hughes

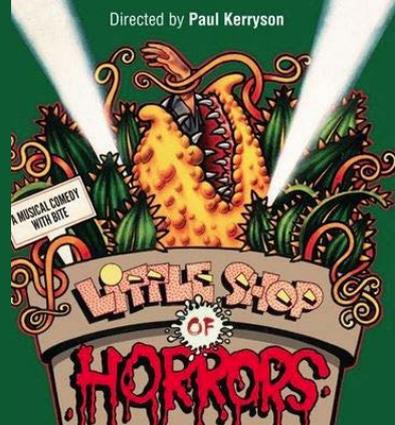

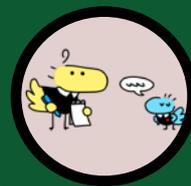

WHAT'S HAPPENING LOCALLY?

Dark Peak Concert band is just like intermediate, although it starts at a grade 5 boundary (sometimes grade 6, depending on the instrument) and it does tours around the world. Concert band recently took part in the music for youth national festival, where it got gold in the semi-final and played in the finals in Birmingham Symphony Hall! They have toured around Spain, Poland, and they are going to Germany next year! Each rehearsal is fun, yet challenging as we have to make sure that every piece is note perfect! Don't worry, we get biscuits halfway through for all our hard work!

At the summer concert, we played the 3 movements from a piece called charivari, by Malcolm Binney. We also did a yearly tradition of playing 'How to Train Your Dragon' which we had only practiced once! One of our percussion players, Matt, conducted our final piece and everyone loved it!

LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS REVIEW

An Interview of Theo Frost

Q: When, where and who did you go to the performance with?

A: Thursday 25th May 2023, 7pm, at the Buxton Opera House with Mrs Bramwell, Mrs Vickers, Mrs Marling and Mrs Wood some year 11's came as well.

Q: How did you get to the Opera House?

A: We went on a coach to reach the location, before that we had Pizza Express.

Q: What did you have at Pizza Express?

A: I had an America pizza, an American is technically like a normal pepperoni pizza but it has different cheeses on it. I had a vanilla ice cream in a teacup because they ran out of ice cream glasses.

Q: What was your favourite part of the production?

A: Every time the Audrey 2/ man eating plant, as it's called, said 'feed me Seymour.' Because it was funny, the puppet was best part. There was also a singer that was technically playing the voice of Audrey II and there was a puppeteer.

Q: What was the set like?

A: Well, they didn't have much of a biggish set. It was the flower shop and like a hairdresser, there was a lot on the stage, they had the interior of the buildings and there was a live conductor of the orchestra.

Q: Was the music good?

A: The singing was amazing. The music wasn't played on a speaker there was a live orchestra with all the instruments.

Q: What did you think of the Opera House?

A: It was larger than I expected it to be, pretty old. It was beautiful, if you count the naked flying babies on the roof.

Q: Would you go to see the production again?

A: Yes, but now I know what the musical about I wouldn't go straight away.

Q: Would you go to the Opera House again?

Yes, I would. I loved the stalls, but I am really picky about seats.

BONUS PART

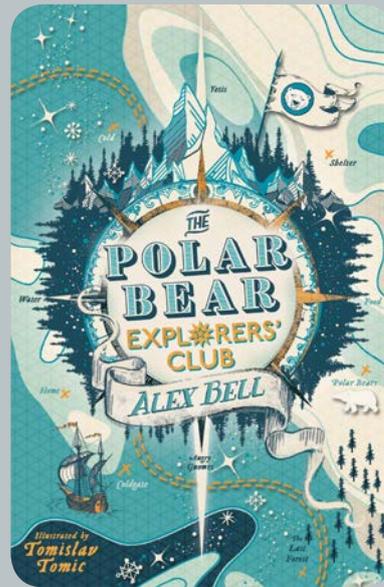

When I came to sit down I was sitting with Mrs Marling, we were coming to sit down and I placed my arm on the armrest and as I placed it on I had a spike almost dig into my arm, the seats were old so the spike wasn't fixed for a while and we talked to an usher and then we told them about the situation and they found plasters so Mrs Marling taped some tissue on it to fix the seat.

BOOK REVIEW

WRITTEN BY LIZZIE HUGHES

“It sounded like a respectable and worthy enough death for an explorer - tumbling from an ice bridge to be impaled upon a mammoth tusk - but Stella really, really didn’t want that to happen, just the same.”

STAR RATING:

The Polar Bear Explorer’s Club is an amazing book about trust between family and friends. I really enjoyed this book because I always had so many questions that would get answered in the most interesting and obscure ways. I don’t think I could ever get bored of this book, every time a read it I notice minute details I didn’t notice before, e.g., Stella’s little box of dancing penguins!

Overall, I would rate this book 5 stars because it is so exciting, and I can never take my eyes off it once I begin reading.

So, if you think that this book is for you, come up to the library one break or lunch to check it out! We also have the 3 sequels for you when you’ve finished this wonderful story!

YOUTUBER

There are lots of aspiring youtubers around this area, and even in this school. As a fellow youtuber myself, I want to share my tips and tricks with you guys! In this article, I'll tell you my tips and share other famous youtuber quotes that have helped me!

The first thing you need to know is that your first few hundred videos are most likely to not get many views. Although- don't let this put you off! The legend himself- Mr. Beast actually talked about this in an interview. Here he explains:

“My first couple of hundred videos did really badly. They only got around 100 views and I didn't make any money from them.”

So, what have we learnt from this? – Be resilient! Don't give up if a video doesn't do well – recently I spent 3 hours making a video and it only got 10 views. Yikes!

The next thing you need to know is to be engaging with any fans you get and the comments section. If you reply to a comment kindly, they are more likely to subscribe to you thus growing your channel. If your channel does start to gain subscribers but you don't engage with your fans, you will lose subscribers rapidly. Of course, be careful with who you talk to online and don't start any big convocations.

Penultimately, you should do either a variety of content or do one kind of content. But what did I mean by this? For example, you do a list of things and do a variety of content from Minecraft challenge videos to bottle flips. Or you could do the other extreme and only do Fortnite videos. Both of these have there are positives and negatives. If you have a variety of content lots of different people will see your videos, but probably won't stay with your channel for the other content. If you stay consistent then people will keep watching your videos and stay subscribed, but only a portion of YouTube will see your videos. There are a lot of successful channels that do both: Mr beast does a lot of variety in him videos whereas T Series does only songs. Personally, I have a variety of content, but you can do what you thin 8is best for your channel.

Finally, my final tip is...

To have fun! Make videos that you would enjoy watching and be happy and energetic in your videos.

If you want to see my videos, my YouTube channel name is PureCookie so check that out if you want!

Good luck youtuber!

ONE SHOT

THE SQUID SPLITTER'S TREASURE

Written and created by Toby Mackey

This is a campaign for Dungeons and Dragons 5th edition to be played by one or two 3rd level characters.

THE POLICE

As the players arrive in town, they are greeted by the local sheriff (you can choose any name if you already have a setting) and are asked if they are busy. The sheriff has a job for the players, and they can go and find more about it at the police station. They reveal the following information:

- The goblin/ Hobgoblin Pirates aboard the galleon known as the dreaded 'Squid – Splitter' have abducted an important noble called Deward Crews.
- The first mate and quarter master of the ship enjoy visiting a local tavern (the Black Dagger).
- They know someone at the port who can get a blueprint for the Squid – Splitter and other information about the vessel.
- They can also provide spell scrolls of Disguise Self to make the characters look like they are goblins.

THE BLACK DAGGER

You should describe the tavern as a very dark and gloomy place, frequented by rogues and scoundrels. In the tavern, there should be a barkeep of some kind, some other people drinking, and two shady figures sitting in a corner. These are the two Hobgoblin officers from the Squid – Splitter that the sheriff told the players about earlier. If they are killed now, they are not involved in the fight later.

THE PORT

The port master should have plans of the ship and can tell the players it is moored off the shore, in the middle of the bay. 2 hobgoblins protect a small rowing boat that is used to get to the ship.

THE SHIP

The ship is moored 120ft out to sea. If the players are not disguised as goblins, a cannon gets shot at them as they come in and are noticed. If not, they get advantage on the next skill challenge. On the deck, lots of goblins pour out of the stairs to the lower deck. Ask all players to think of something cinematic to do and roll an appropriate skill. If more than half out of three rolls per character succeed, then all the goblins get killed through the actions of the players, and the players are free to pass through. If they fail, 4 goblins try to fight them.

On the next level down on the ship, there is a group of goblins arguing over who gets the treasure. There is a treasure chest with 50gp per player in the middle of the deck. Players can engage the situation however they like.

On the final level down, there is a person chained to the floor with an ankle chain. As the players come in, he says "ah! Finally, someone has come to rescue me! My name is Deward Crews!" the man is not lying, and he would like to get some treasure from the next chamber, preferably the magic items.

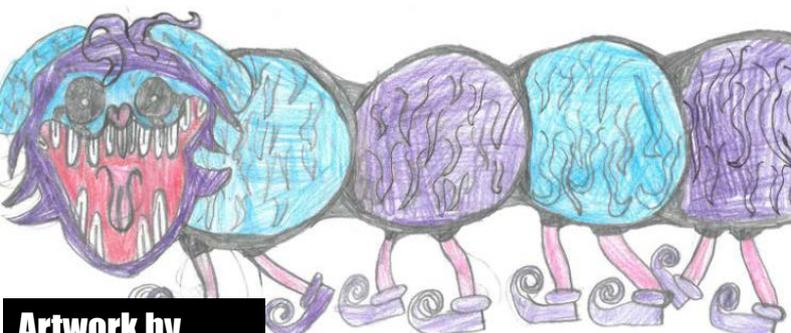

Through a door at the end of the last chamber, there is the captain's quarters. He is talking to the quarter master and first mate (if they are still alive). The captain fights to the death and has 9in in a chest in the room, 300gp per player and a trident of fish command (or other magic items).

You can progress this adventure in multiple ways, such as a pirate adventure where the players take control of the ship, or they could be hired by the sheriff again. You can decide!

Feelings By Emily Mayo

Feelings are like a spinning wheel,
Not staying in one place,
Circling your mind at every moment,
Sadness strikes down at you like a bolt of lightning,
Happiness flashes by with a blink of an eye,
Emotions are like a you are getting played at,
But one day you'll wake up and see,
That happiness won't come easy for people like you or me,
There'll be twists and turns,
Ups and downs,
It will feel like a cycle going round and round,
Until one day maybe, you'll feel safe and sound.
